Accommodation

Anglotec has 40 years of experience offering great homestay opportunities in Scarborough. Our students stay with local families all within 3 km from Anglotec Academy and in most cases less than 1km. This means students can walk safely to and from the Academy in a peaceful and safe neighbourhood. Our customised approach means we take care to match students to families that will be able to cater to their specific needs.

Other options: We also have a limited number of Guest House and residential options, all located near to the Academy.

Meals

Host families provide breakfast, a packed lunch and dinner for students. Our welcoming hosts have years of experience of catering to dietary requirements and we also offer vegetarian and halal options. There is also a cafe in the school where a hot meal option is available each day.
